The Bravest Thing I Have Done

Dear Pregnancy Center East –

Thank you, for walking me through one of the bravest things I have done, having my sweet baby boy. When I came in for a pregnancy test, I was so anxious. Everyone was so calm and nice.

You helped me to feel confident that things were going to work out. By God's grace, I got into the Parenting Class which also eased some of my worries.

You are truly a blessing to me more than you know.

A sincerely thankful mama,
Angela

Now, More Than Ever

By Laura Curran, Executive Director

While a segment of the pro-life effort has been focused on SCOTUS regarding Roe v. Wade, our work has always been about her - that expectant mother who needs alternatives to abortion to make a life-saving decision.

That work will continue. Even increase. We will be there, as always, to lower her fear and increase her hope. We believe that every woman should be loved and supported during her pregnancy. Abortion is neither loving, nor supportive.

We will continue to expand resources, support, and life-affirming options for mothers, fathers, and babies in need.

The work of Pregnancy Center East will be even more important because of the decision we anticipate when official.

When this Supreme Court decision is finalized, the battle for what is truly at stake will be front and center: the ultimate battle of hearts, minds, and souls who feel their only option is to have an abortion.
